

Chockruti
Contemporary World Artisan Chocolates

Born in India in 2011, Chockriti™ Chocolates is a fine art chocolatier delicately handmade by Dr Pragati Sawhney specializing in premium cacao from Belgium and another collection from organic single origin, single estate cacao with jaggery. It is India's first online chocolate brand with pure 100 percent cacao artisan chocolates with a two fold mission of "Saving Good People from Bad Chocolate!!" and "Bringing art, purity and creativity in chocolate products made in India".

The name Chockriti means Fine Chocolate Work of Art- "Choc" is short for Chocolate and "Kriti" means "Work of Art" in Sanskrit. The lotus flower symbolizes the purity and goodness in all the ingredients and signifies the abundance in nature from where they come from.

Inspired by India's culture and traditions, Chockriti curates beautiful Indian chocolates that best represent flavors of India and some worldwide as well like Thandai, Goat Cheese, African Rooibos Tea, Zataar, Kaffir lime, Lavender etc.

The rich contemporary bars and truffles are made in small batches with 55-100 percent cacao married with fresh brews of organic real dried flowers, tea, herbs, spices and nuts from around the world with no added sugar, butter, vegetable oil, corn syrup, invertase, alcohol or artificial flavorings. The products include vegan, sugar and soy lecithin free and leave the modern palate with a unique gastronomical experience with added health benefits of only pure dark chocolate and therapeutic properties of natural teas, flowers, spices and herbs.
